Disputed penalty decides

Slough Town Res 2, Wycombe Res 1

ANDY Hunt was at the centre of the action when Wycombe Reserves went down 2-1 at Slough in the Suburban League North Division to a disputed penalty on Saturday.

Not only was Hunt incident, but he scored and in the second half was stretchered off with concussion following a violent clash with the home keeper.

All in all it was quite a day for Ian Rundle, standing in as manager for John Maskell who was with the first team at Worcester. The match marked the return of Jimmy Richardson, following a period on loan to Harrow Borough.

It was Richardson who took the free kick which Hunt latched onto in the 37th minute to send Wycombe into the lead with a shot that gave the keeper no chance.

By the interval Slough had equalised when Hunt, who was back in the defence helping out, gave away a hotly disputed penalty.

Hunt could have put Wycombe ahead again after the break, but saw his header drop into the arms of the Slough keeper. In the 77th minute the home team scored what proved to be the winning goal, and soon afterwards Hunt was carried off the pitch.
